Numb. 498.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM JUNE 22. TO JUNE 29. 1738.

The SPEECH of His Excellency

JONATHAN BELCHER, Eſq;

Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay in New-England. To the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province, June 1. 1738.

Gentlemen of the Council, & of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

BY Meeting you at this Time in General Aſſembly, is in conformity to the Royal CHARTER, in which you enjoy more Privileges than moſt of His Majeſty's Dominions. Happy is NEW-ENGLAND thus diſtinguiſhed! May your Loyalty and Duty to His Majeſty, and to His Royal Houſe, riſe in Proportion; and may the Powers reſerv'd to the Crown and the Liberties granted to this People, remain firm and unſhaken to lateſt Poſterity.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

The Treaſurer will lay before you the Accounts of the Expence of the Year paſt, with an Eſtimate of what may be neceſſary to be rais'd, for defraying the Charge of the enſuing Year.

I ſhall not doubt your making ample Proviſion for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of His Majeſty's Government, and for the Safety and Eaſe of his People.

That no Loſs may happen to the Province, you will make careful Inquiry into the State and Circumſtances of the ſeveral Branches of the publick Revenue.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

At the Seſſion of the General Court in December laſt, I earneſtly recommended to both Houſes, the falling upon an Expedient, for ſupplying a Medium in Trade; and I ſhould be glad you might now come into ſome juſt and honeſt Projection, which might not be an imaginary, but a ſubſtantial Eaſe and Benefit to all his Majeſty's good Subjects of the Province.

While I continue to feel the ill Effects of the Bills of Credit ſinking in their Value, in the Manner they have ever ſince my Arrival to the Government, I depend you will think it juſt and reaſonable, that the Grant you may now make me for the current Year, be at leaſt equal to His Majeſty's Royal Inſtruction, I have ſo often laid before you.

I hope you will proceed in all your Deliberations and Reſolutions, with great Peace and Unanimity, which muſt give the beſt Diſpatch to the publick Affairs, and the Opportunity of ſoon returning to your own.

June 1. 1738.

J. BELCHER.

BOSTON, June 19.

The Reſolution of the Houſe of Commons of Great Britain, agreed to by a great Majority.

THAT it is the Opinion of this Committee that it is the natural and undoubted Right of the Britiſh Subjects, to ſail their Ships on any Part of the Seas of America to and from any Part of His Majeſty's Dominions; and that the Freedom of Navigation and Commerce, which the Subjects of Great-Britain have an undoubted Right to by the Law of Nations, and by Virtue of the Treaties ſubſiſting between the two Crowns of Great Britain and Spain, have been greatly intercepted by the Spaniards under Pretences altogether groundleſs and unwarrantable.

That before and ſince the Execution of the Treaty of [illegible], and the Declaration made by the Crown of Spain purſuant thereto, for the Satisfaction and Security of the Commerce of Great Britain, many unjuſt Seizures and Captures have been made and great Depredations committed by the Spaniards, attended by many Inſtances of unheard of Cruelty and Barbarity.

That the frequent Application made to the Court of Spain for procuring Juſtice and Satisfaction to His Majeſty's Injured Subjects, for bringing the Offenders to Condign Puniſhment, and for preventing the like Abuſes for the future, have proved Vain and Ineffectual, and the ſeveral Orders and Cedules granted by the King of Spain for Reſtitution and Reparation for the great Loſſes ſuſtained by the unlawful and unreaſonable Seizure and Captures made by the Spaniards, have been diſobey'd by the Spaniſh Governors, or totally eluded or evaded.

All which Violences and Depredations have been carried on to the great Loſs and Damage of the Subjects of Great-Britain Trading to America, and in direct Violation of the Treaties ſubſiſting between the Two Crowns.

That the Houſe be moved that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty to uſe his Royal Endeavours with his Catholick Majeſty, to obtain effectual Relief for his injured Subjects, and to convince the Court of Spain that how deſirous ſoever his Majeſty may be to preſerve a good Correſpondence and Amity between the Two Crowns, which only can ſubſiſt by a ſtrict Obſervation of their mutual Treaties, and a juſt Regard of the Rights and Privileges belonging to each other.) His Majeſty can no longer ſuffer ſuch conſtant and repeated Inſults and Injuries to be carried on the Diſhonour of his Crown and to the Ruin of his Trading Subjects.

And to aſſure His Majeſty, that in Caſe his Royal and Friendly Inſtances for procuring Juſtice and for the future Security of that Navigation and Commerce which his People have an undoubted Right to by Treaties and the Law of Nations, ſhall not be able to procure from the Equity and Friendſhip of the King of Spain, ſuch Satisfaction as his Majeſty may expect from a good and faithfull Ally, This Houſe will effectually ſupport His Majeſty, in taking ſuch Meaſures as Honour and Juſtice ſhall make it neceſſary for His Majeſty to purſue.

Extract

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Newfoundland, to his Friend in Boston, via New-York.

" As to the times at Home, they look'd very dubious " when I left London, which was on the 14th of April laſt, " in relation to a War, for the Merchants Trading to the " Weſt-Indies, both from London and Briſtol, have met " and have been to the Parliament Houſe, on Account of " their Suffering ſo much by the Spaniards, and without " Satisfaction it muſt end in a War. There are abundance " of Ships put in Commiſſion, and Preſſing was begun when " we left Poole.

Yeſterday arrived Capt. Rouſe from Briſtol, having been out from thence about eleven Weeks; ſeveral Letters that come by him import that there is a great likelihood of War with Spain, that there is no Imbargo, but a great Impreſs in order to put about 30 Sail of His Majeſty's Ships into Commiſſion.

NEW-YORK, June 26.

From the Dublin Daily Poſt Boy and General Advertiſer, Friday, April 14. 1738.

General Doxat was executed on the 18th of March.

London April 8. On Thurſday the Speaker of the Hon. Houſe of Commons, and ſeveral of the Members waited on the King, at St. James's, with their Addreſs, humbly to beſeech His Majeſty to uſe His utmoſt Endeavours to obtain Satisfaction from the King of Spain, for the Loſſes ſuſtained by the Britiſh Merchants on Account of the Depredations of the Spaniards. To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

" I am fully ſenſible of the many and unwarrantable Depredations committed by the Spaniards, and you may be aſſured, I will make uſe of the moſt proper and effectual Means, that are in my Power, to procure Juſtice and Satisfaction to my injured Subjects, and for the future Security of their Trade and Navigation. I can make no doubt but you will ſupport me with Chearfulneſs, in all ſuch Meaſures as, in Purſuance of your Advice, I may be neceſſitated to take, for the Honour of my Crowns and Kingdoms."

The ſame Day his Grace Charles Duke of Marlborough, was ſworn in One of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place accordingly.

The ſame Day one of His Majeſty's Meſſengers was diſpatched Expreſs to his Excellency Mr. Keene, His Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of Madrid.

The Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy, have laid before the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, a Liſt of the Ships that are moſt fit for the preſent Service, and yeſterday ſeveral of them were put into Commiſſion.

Yeſterday the Houſe of Commons voted 10,000 more Seamen for the Service of the current Year, beſides 10,000 lately granted by Parliament.

We hear that his Grace the Duke of Marlborough is promoted to the Rank of a Lieutenant General.

Dublin Journal, April 11. and the Daily Advertiſer of the 10th, mention from London, April 1 and 4. On Tueſday laſt, upon the Report of the Evidences relating to the Depredations of the Spaniards, Mr. Pulteney moved, that as every thing was fully proved to the Satisfaction of the Houſe, that His Majeſty might be addreſſed to declare War againſt Spain, and that His faithful Commons, as Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, would uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to raiſe Supplies for carrying on the ſame, which occaſioned great Debates (too long to inſert here). Mr. Sandys, Mr. Wortley, Sir John Aubyn, &c. ſpoke to the ſame Effect.

That all Hopes of a Peace between the Emperor and Turks are vaniſhed, and that the latter will have three Armies in the Field this Campaign.

April 8. N. S. The Ambaſſador of Spain preſented a memorial to the States-General, tending to diſſwade them from entering into Meaſures with Great-Britain on Account of the Spaniſh Proceedings in the Weſt-Indies.

That Cardinal Fleury is recovered.

That there is very great Reaſon to believe, from ſeveral Circumſtances, that Sir Orlando Bridgman, Bart. Governor of Barbadoes, has drowned himſelf in the River Thames: Two Letters having been found in his Scrutore, importing he deſigned to drown himſelf in that River. He had been miſſing two Days.
